In re Application of :
Barrett et al. : DECISION ON APPLICATION
Application No. 10/524,939 : FOR
Filed: March 4, 2008 : PATENT TERM ADJUSTMENT
Docket No. UTSG: 260US/10309693 :
Title: COMPOSITIONS AND METHODS :
RELATED TO FLAVIVIRUS ENVELOPE :
PROTEIN DOMAIN III ANTIGENS :

This is a decision on the "APPLICATION FOR PATENT TERM ADJUSTMENT UNDER 37 C.F.R. §1.705(b)," filed June 2, 2010. Applicants request that the patent term adjustment indicated on the initial determination of patent term adjustment be corrected to reflect one period of Office delay.

The application for patent term adjustment is GRANTED.

The Office has updated the PAIR screen, however the correct Patent Term Adjustment (PTA) determination at the time of the mailing of the Notice of Allowance remains zero days.

On March 2, 2010, the Office mailed a Determination of Patent Term Adjustment under 35 U.S.C. 154(b) in the above-identified application. Applicants were advised that the patent term adjustment to date is 0 days. On June 2, 2010, Applicants timely¹ filed the present application for patent term adjustment. Applicants dispute the Office's failure to accord an adjustment of 66 days pursuant to 37 CFR 1.703(a)(1).

¹ Office records show that the Issue Fee payment was received on June 2, 2010.

The record supports a conclusion that any patent issuing from this patent is not subject to a terminal disclaimer.

37 CFR 1.703(a)(1) states that the term of an original patent shall be adjusted by the failure of the Office to mail at least one of a notification under 35 U.S.C. 132 or a notice of allowance under 35 U.S.C. 151 not later than fourteen months after the date on which the application fulfilled the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 371 in an international application.

The application history has been reviewed and it has been determined that Applicants are correct in stating that 66 days of Office delay should have been accorded. Pursuant to the Notice of Acceptance of Application under 35 U.S.C. 371 and 37 CFR 1.495 that was mailed on July 18, 2008, this application fulfilled the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 371 in an international application on March 4, 2008. Applicants argue that this application "satisfied all 371(c) requirements²" on October 8, 2007. The Office agrees: the proper date of completion is not March 4, 2008, but rather October 8, 2007. As such, the Office was required to mail either "a notification under 35 U.S.C. 132 or a notice of allowance under 35 U.S.C. 151 not later than fourteen months after" October 8, 2007. The Office mailed a restriction requirement fourteen months and 66 days later on February 12, 2009, resulting in 66 days of examination delay.

The adjustment of 0 days has been removed, and an adjustment of 66 days has been entered.

In view thereof, the correct patent term adjustment at the time of the mailing of the notice of allowance remains zero days (66 days of Office delay minus 68 days of Applicant delay).

Submission of the $200.00 fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.18(e) is acknowledged. No additional fee is required.

Applicants are reminded that any delays by the Office pursuant to 37 CFR 1.702(a)(4) and 1.702(b) and any applicant delays under 37 CFR 1.704(c)(10) will be calculated at the time of the issuance of the patent and applicants will be notified of the revised patent term adjustment to be indicated on the patent in the Issue Notification letter that is mailed to Applicants approximately three weeks prior to issuance.
